FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Brentwood, CA "Nor-Cal" ~ Jan. 17, 2010): Bay area lifetime resident and America's first and only 500cc Motocross World Champion, Brad Lackey, will again host the "5th Annual Brad Lackey Nor-Cal Classic" on March 13 & 14 at the Historic Sandhill Ranch racing facility in Brentwood, California.

This venue is also the 3rd & 4th stops of the AHRMA (American Historic Racing Motorcycle Association) National Vintage Motocross Series. AHRMA was responsible for the rebirth of classic vintage motorcycle racing in America. Additionally, the AHRMA Legends Group will be honoring Carlsbad Raceway as the most famous race track in the USA, according to Brad Lackey, who raced and won there from 1969 thru 1983. Carlsbad Raceway was home of the 500cc World Championship in the USA for many years.

Carlsbad USGP 1978 ~ Honda mounted Brad Lackey #2 leads the pack.

Harley Davidson (www.McGuire-HD.com) in Walnut California for stepping up again this year as the title sponsor. Supporting sponsors are being rallied together for prizes, which will be announced soon.

So, don't miss out on the action and your chance to race with the best. Mark this weekend on your calendar and we'll see you soon!

For race information, entry forms and line-up, visit AHRMA's website calendar page at <http://www.ahrma.org/Calendar.htm#vmx> and scroll down to the "Sandhill Ranch 2-Day National". You can always visit www.BradLackey.com or call (925) 939-9105.
